Jer 7:23-28;
Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9;
Lk 11:14-23
Having given up active Christian belief while a soldier, John was 40 before the depth of his sinfulness began to dawn on him. He decided to give the rest of his life to God's service, and headed at once for Africa where he hoped to free captive Christians and, possibly, be martyred.

FAITH FORMATION, EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

3rd Sunday of Lent

Once Jesus said to me, Do not be surprised that you are sometimes unjustly accused. I Myself first drank this cup of undeserved suffering for love of you.

(Diary 289)

Lord, give me the guidance and grace in order to faithfully keep your commandments.

Religious Education

WHOLE FAMILY CATECHESIS

This Sunday, Mar 4th, 9-10:45am

Takes the place of all Rel-Ed Classes

Our Rel-Ed focus this month is "morality" or the 10 commandments. It may seem like a downer to talk to kids about "rules" but if we really look at it God gives us rules not to limit us but to make things better. After all, would a game be fun without the rules? More than listing rules, however, the commandments point to the even greater gift of God's grace and mercy that Jesus won for us on the cross; because only these can make it possible to follow them. We'll discuss these themes more at this month's Whole Family Catechesis this weekend. We look forward to seeing you there. And may you have a blessed lent!
