AROUND OUR PARISH, THE DIOCESE AND WORLD

The Church, therefore, is missionary by her very nature. She continues the mission of the Son and the mission of the Holy Spirit by proclaiming to the ends of the earth the salvation Christ offers those who believe in him. We are faithful to the nature of the Church to the degree that we love and sincerely promote her missionary activity. As teachers and pastors we are responsible for keeping alive a vibrant Catholic missionary spirit in the United States.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Once the Lord said to me, Act like a beggar who does not back away when he gets more alms (than he asked for), but offers thanks the fervently. You too, should not back away and say that you are not worthy of receiving greater graces when I give them to you. I know you are unworthy, but rejoice all the more and take as many treasures from My Heart as you can carry, for you will please Me more. And I will tell you one more thing – take those graces not only for yourself, but also for others; that is, encourage the souls with whom you come in contact to trust in My infinite mercy. Oh, how I love those souls who have complete confidence in Me – I will do everything for them.

September 2018

I want to say thank you to all reading this. Thank you for the things you do in your parish and school that keep our minors healthy and safe. Thank you to those who hold every person accountable when it comes to working with our children. If you can say to yourself, "our parish/school is the absolute safest place a parent or grandparent can leave their children", then we are doing our duty. If you hesitate, even slightly, please speak up. We have no place in our parishes or schools for someone who is not fully committed to upholding the promise to protect our minors!

+ Saint Peter, pray for the Church, that it may be re-built, healed, and made holy.

+ St. Charles Lwanga and St. Monica, pray for the abused, the survivors, and for justice.

+ St. Catherine of Siena, pray for reform and restoration of the clergy.

+ St. Paul, pray for the bishops that they may be fearless

+ St. John Vianney, pray for the holiness of priests and bishops.

St. John Paul II

Father of the New Evangelization, said the New Evangelization was born out of the Second Vatican Council. Core principles of Vatican II related to the New Evangelization:

We're ALL called to holiness.

Everyone [baptized and confirmed] in the Church is equally and fully a member of the Church, of the People of God.

Every Catholic is called to be an apostle and has a mission to live their faith in the world.

We are ALL called to fully engage in a participatory way in the worship of the Church with the ordained ministers who act in persona Christi.

Every Catholic should be reading their Bible and become more familiar with the Word of God in Scripture and Tradition.

We need a new Pentecost.

Here's how you can pick up what the council put down...

1. Take The Ultimate Relationship Booklet to prayer
2. Read your Bible every day.
3. Go through the Wild Goose series on Formed.org
