READINGS FOR THE WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 16

Sunday 24th Sunday Ordinary Time
Is 50:5-9a; Ps 116:1-6, 8-9;
Jas 2:14-18; Mk 8:27-35

Bishop & Church Doctor

1 Cor 11:17-26, 33;
Ps 40:7-8a, 8b-9, 10-17;
Lk 7:1-10

He was an Italian Jesuit and a Cardinal of the Catholic Church. He was named a Doctor of the Church, one of only 36. He was one of the most important figures in the Counter-Reformation. He was a professor of theology and later rector of the Roman College, and in 1602 became Archbishop of Capua. Bellarmine supported the reform decrees of the Council of Trent.

Tuesday 1 Cor 12:12-14, 27-31a;
Ps 100:1b-2, 3, 4, 5;
Lk 7:11-17

Wednesday St. Januarius, Bishop & Martyr
1 Cor 12:31—13:13;
Ps 33:2-3, 4-5, 12 & 22;
Lk 7:31-35

While no contemporary sources on his life are preserved, later sources and legends claim that he died during the Great Persecution which ended with Diocletian's retirement in 305. Januarius is the patron saint of Naples, where the faithful gather three times a year in Naples Cathedral to witness the liquefaction of what is claimed to be a sample of his blood kept in a sealed glass ampoule.

Thursday Sts. Andrew Kim Tae-gon,
Priest & Paul Chong Ha-sang
& Companions. Martyrs

1 Cor 15:1-11;
Ps 118:1b-2, 16ab-17, 28;
Lk 7:36-50

Saint Andrew Kim Tae-gon in English, was the first Korean-born Catholic priest and is the patron saint of Korea. On 6 May 1984, Pope John Paul II canonized Kim along with 102 other Korean Martyrs, including Paul Chong Hasang, during his trip to Korea.

Friday St. Matthew, Apostle & Evangelist
Eph 4:1-7, 11-13; Ps 19:2-5; Mt 9:9-13

According to the Christian Bible, he is one of the twelve apostles of Jesus and, according to Christian tradition, one of the four Evangelists.

Jesus saw, seated in his customs bureau, Levi the publican, whose business it was to collect the taxes from the people for their Roman masters. Jesus said to him: Follow Me. Leaving all behind, Matthew arose and did so, thereby giving us all an example of the way in which we should respond to grace.

AROUND OUR PARISH, THE DIOCESE AND WORLD

GREETINGS FELLOW DISCIPLES OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,

Well, as you know, we have begun a new series a couple of weeks ago that, in a very practical way, shows us how we can grow in both our understanding and daily practice of being disciples of Jesus. We call the new series STEPS. Each letter of the word STEPS represents one of the five steps to walking as a faithful disciple of Jesus. S-Service, T-Tithe, E-Engaged, P-Prayer and Sacraments, S-Sharing and Inviting people to join us. The first week Father Bob McGraw shared how we are called to service. Last week I was able to share how and why we tithe and how it literally changes the look of a parish and even a diocese. This week we take another step which we call "Engage."

There are many ways followers of Jesus get engaged and become active and intentional disciples. One of the ways the Holy Spirit is moving today in the life of parishes around the country is for people to grow in their discipleship through engaging in "small groups." Many of our parishioners at Holy Redeemer are already "engaged" in small groups. I have done Bible studies and will offer another Bible study on the Gospel of John this fall beginning October 11. I also am part of a small group that meets in the home of a parishioner. We have about 8 people in our small group and our discussions are really thought provoking, fun, and we have developed some good relationships too.

Other examples of ways to be in a small group would be to join Alpha, or Divine Mercy, Bible Study, CRHP which is called Welcome now, Cursillo, RCIA, or one of the small groups that already exist, or start a small group among your friends. Alpha and Welcome are larger groups that break into small table groups that in turn will often spontaneously continue to meet throughout the years. In all these ways, our parishioners are "engaging" in a way that builds relationships, prayer, study, and overall growth in our spiritual lives. Some of these groups meet weekly and some monthly; some are women's groups, some are men's groups, some are couples, some are open to anyone, some are young adult, some are mixed but all are some of the wonderful ways the Holy Spirit is helping us walk together and grow together. Watch for the opportunity to sign up this week to more actively "engage" in faithful discipleship through small groups.

May God richly bless you all,
Fr. Steve

I am giving you a share in those sufferings because of My special love for you and in view of the high degree of holiness I am intending for you in heaven. A suffering soul is closest to My Heart.
